

AHDS History Collection

AHDS History's collection brings together over 650 separate data collections transcribed, scanned or compiled from historical sources. The studies cover a wide range of historical topics, from the seventh century to the mid-twentieth century. Although the primary focus of the collection is on the United Kingdom, it also includes a significant body of cross-national and international data collections.

There are several ways to locate detailed information about the AHDS History collection.

- Download a list of all AHDS History's studies
- Search the AHDS collections interface on the main part of the AHDS website
- Search the UK Data Archive Catalogue which provides access to catalogue records and documentation for all the holdings of AHDS History and the UK Data Archive
- Browse recent releases which are now available
- Browse recent acquisitions which will soon be available
